Alma Mater

How dear to our hearts will memory be
Of the days we have spent in thy care,
When within thy dear halls we have lingered awhile
All thy gifts and thy blessings to share.
So the memory of thee will ever remain
While we think of each dear hallowed scene;
And the bonds of true loyalty, blest through the years,
Of our affections will ever keep green.

Then, to thee, Alma Mater, we'll ever be true.
Though the coming years scatter us far;
And the ideals you taught us will ever be bright
Shining out as our life's guiding star.
We will cherish thy name wherever we roam,
And forever thy praises repeat.
Hail to thee, Alma Mater, our happiest days
Are the days we have spent in Montreat.

This handbook is printed in your school colors, blue and gold.

MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN OF STUDENTS

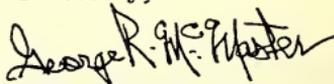

For myself, the college faculty and administration, and students, I extend a warm and cordial welcome. We are looking forward to having you in this college community and to experiencing a good year together.

This past year a faculty-student committee worked together on the re-writing of the Student Government Constitution, subsequently adopted by the student body, and recommendations for the revision of College and Student Government Regulations. These, together with a section on General Information, comprise the Student Handbook. It is suggested that you read this Handbook carefully and become thoroughly acquainted with the regulations governing student life.

You will find here the laws of this college community. You may not agree with all of them. Through established Student Government channels, you are, of course, free to work for those changes which you feel are desirable. However, as long as you are a member of this college community, you are expected to comply with and live in harmony with these regulations. Basic to this, is a decision on your part to accept and to seek to live in accord with The Honor System, The Honor Code and The Honor Pledge which you will find printed on pages 5 and 6 of this Handbook.

The Executive officers of the Student Government Association, Fred Jenkins, President, Don Young, Vice-President, and Sandra Lance, Secretary-Treasurer, join with me in urging you to enter fully into the opportunities for academic achievement and personal development through participation in the varied aspects of college life. I want to assure each one of you that as the Dean of Students, I am always available to you for counsel and any help I may be able to render.

Sincerely,

George R. McMaster
Dean of Students

THE HONOR SYSTEM

Life at Montreat-Anderson College is based on the belief that the ideal community is made up of honorable individuals. Mutual trust and consideration are essential to such a community, and it is for these that we strive.

Each student and faculty member has a responsibility for himself and for every other member of the college community. The failure of one person to live honorably is in part the failure of all. The movement of one individual toward complete understanding of Christian living is a step toward honorable living for the whole college.

For this reason the students of Montreat-Anderson College have accepted the "Honor System", under which each student agrees to try to discipline his own life and to be ready to help all others to discipline their lives toward the goal of a community in which each member will merit trust and respect. It is in large part due to the acceptance of faculty and students of the Honor System as a way of life, that the "Spirit of Montreat" is a reality, not only on the campus, but wherever former Montreat students are found.

THE HONOR CODE

Under the Honor Code, you are on your honor not to cheat, steal or lie: and if you see another student doing so, you are on your honor to report him to the Honor Court.

The Honor Code places upon you a dual responsibility. First, you are responsible to see that you conduct yourself in accordance with the Honor Code. Secondly, you also are responsible insofar as possible to see that your fellow students do likewise. This System places considerable responsibility for self government on the students themselves. This college believes that mature students are capable of handling this serious responsibility. You are the governing system and you are responsible for its success.

THE HONOR PLEDGE

I pledge with God's help to uphold the Honor Code of Montreat-Anderson College. I state my acceptance of the principles expressed in this Honor System and pledge to live so as to make it meaningful to myself and to the college community.

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT
ASSOCIATION OF MONTREAT-ANDERSON COLLEGE

REGULATIONS OF THE COLLEGE

Violation of college regulations will be examined by the Honor Court of the Student Government Association and penalties will be assigned, or the case may be referred to the Administration. Students are expected to uphold all student government and administrative rules.

The college reserves the right to ask for the withdrawal at any time of any student who refuses to adjust to these standards or who harmfully influences another student.

CLASS ATTENDANCE

1. A student may have one unexcused absence for each credit hour of the course as stated in the catalog.
Exceptions: A. No unexcused absence is allowed from a test announced as much as a week ahead.
B. Attendance regulations for labs, Physical Education activity courses, and chorus are at the discretion of the instructor, who will inform the student and the Dean of the Faculty, in writing at the beginning of each semester, of the practice to be followed.
2. Absences are counted from the opening day of classes.
3. Absences will be excused only upon presentation to the instructor of an official slip signed by one of the deans.
Absences due to illness, official representation of the College, death or marriage in the immediate family, or special circumstances so stated by the dean, will constitute excused absences.
4. Absence for any reason (excused or unexcused) in excess of
4 for a 1-hour course,
7 for a 2-hour course,
10 for a 3-hour course, and
14 for a 4-hour course
will result in an automatic F on the course and official dropping of the course. The grade and dropping of the courses may be appealed to the Faculty Committee on Absences, by either the student or the instructor concerned. When, because of absences, a student is carrying less than 12 hours he shall be required to leave the college, subject to appeal to the Administrative Committee.
5. If a student has more than the allowed number of unexcused absences, his semester grade will be lowered 2 points for each excessive unexcused absence.
6. Second semester sophomores with an overall 3.0 average may have absences limited only by 1A and B and 4 above.

POINT AVERAGE

I. Quality points are assigned according to the following system:

- 1 semester hour with a grade of A counts 4 points.
- 1 semester hour with a grade of B counts 3 points.
- 1 semester hour with a grade of C counts 2 points.
- 1 semester hour with a grade of D counts 1 point.
- 1 semester hour with a grade of F counts 0 points.

2. Quality point average is determined by dividing the number of quality points by the number of semester hours attempted. For example: 3 semester hours of B (9 quality points), 6 semester hours of C (12 quality points), 3 semester hours of D (3 quality points), and 3 semester hours of F (0 quality points) gives a quality point average of 1.6.

GRADING PERIODS

1. Official grades, to be recorded on the permanent record of the student, are issued at the end of each semester.
2. At mid-semester the faculty reports the grades of all students making D or F at that point in the semester. Unless a report is made, a student is assumed to be making a grade of C or higher.

ELIGIBILITY TO CONTINUE IN COLLEGE

1. To be eligible to remain in college after his first semester of work at Montreat-Anderson College, a student must make a quality point average of at least 1.12 and pass at least 9 hours of academic work.
2. To be eligible to remain in college after his second semester of work at Montreat-Anderson College, a student's quality points for that semester must be at least 1.3 and he must have passed at least 9 hours of academic work during the semester.
3. To be eligible to remain in college after his third semester of work at Montreat-Anderson College, a student's quality point average for that semester must be at least 1.5 and he must have passed at least 9 hours of academic work during the semester.
4. In the event of a student's returning after the fourth semester, his quality point average for that semester must be at least 1.5 and he must have passed at least 9 hours of academic work.

CHEATING, STEALING AND LYING

1. Under the Honor Code, you are on your honor not to cheat, steal or lie and if you see another student doing so, you are on your honor to report him to the Honor Court. (See the statements on the Honor System, the Honor Code and the Honor Pledge on pages 5 and 6 of this handbook and Article VII, Section 3 of the SGA Constitution.)

2. The Honor System at Montreat-Anderson College is an integral and central aspect of life in this community. Certainly it is commonly recognized that lying, cheating and stealing are wrong and their opposites are right. This applies particularly in the area of academic honesty and integrity. This college takes the position that any time a student hands in work or does any work on which he puts his name, such work should be strictly his own. He is, in fact, saying that it is his own when he signs his name to it. The conviction is here affirmed that any form of using material which is not authorized in taking any kind of test, whether it affects the student's grade or not, writing a paper, answering study questions or doing any other assigned work to which a student attaches his name must be regarded as cheating.

In summary, the following general guidelines regarding academic honesty apply:

Each student's work shall be the product of his own effort.

Appropriate acknowledgment of the work of others must be given when it is incorporated into the writing of a paper or assignment.

Collaboration in the preparation of written work and preparation for tests may take place only to the extent approved by the instructor.

3. Violation of the Honor Code is a major offense. Such cases will be handled by the Honor Court and may, upon recommendation of the Honor Court and concurrence of the college administration, result in suspension, expulsion, requirement to withdraw or disciplinary probation. (See Article VII, Section 4E of the SGA Constitution.)

RESPECT FOR PROPERTY

1. There are privately owned cottages at Montreat and buildings owned by Boards and Agencies of the General Assembly. Students are expected to respect the property rights of others. Any student found guilty of trespassing will be subject to disciplinary action.
2. Each student residing in a college dormitory will be required to make a $20 deposit toward any damages occurring during his stay in the dormitory. If any damages occur to the interior of his room, the repair cost will be taken directly out of his deposit. When damage is done to any part of the dormitory other than the interior of the student's room, the person(s) responsible for the damage will be required to pay the damages. If it cannot be determined who is responsible, the cost of the repairs will be taken from the corporate fund of all students on the hall or the residence unit involved. Any balance remaining at the end of the year will be refunded to the student. If the $20 is not sufficient, additional charges will be made.
3. Any student found guilty of vandalism will be required to pay for all property damage he has caused. In addition, he will be required to pay a fine equal to one-half the cost of the damage but not less than $5 and will be placed on disciplinary probation for the remainder of the semester in which the offense occurs, or one month, whichever is longer. Parents may be notified at the discretion of the administration.

ATTENDANCE AT RELIGIOUS AND GENERAL FUNCTIONS

1. Students are urged to attend regularly the church of their choice, Sunday evening vesper services and prayer meeting. No meetings of required attendance are to be scheduled at the time of the weekly Wednesday night prayer meeting (7:15 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.).

4. Each student is allowed three unexcused absences per semester from Sunday morning worship and a total of six unexcused absences from chapel, college convocations and official college functions combined.
5. The penalty for the first unexcused absence beyond the number allowed is a campus for one week; for a second, it is suspension from college for one week and for a third, it is suspension from college for the remainder of the semester.
6. It will be the responsibility of the Dean of Students' office to keep a record of attendance at chapel, Sunday morning worship, college convocations and official college functions, and to provide for excuses when they are warranted.

ORIENTATION

1. During the first nine weeks, an orientation program is provided for all new students. The purpose of the orientation program is to acquaint new students with the philosophy, policies and regulations of the college.
2. New students who are absent from required orientation sessions without a valid excuse approved by the Dean of Students will be charged with one convocation cut for each session missed.

GENERAL BEHAVIOR

1. The college reserves the right to exclude from the college any student whose character and morals are not consistent with the ideals of the college, or whose influence is detrimental to the spirit of the college.
2. The behavior of any member of the student body of the college reflects upon the student body and the college as a whole. For this reason, the college requires that students conduct themselves at all times in such a way as not to discredit or disparage the good name of the student body and the college. Behavior unbecoming to the standards of Montreat-Anderson College will be reviewed for suspension or dismissal.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

1. Montreat-Anderson College is opposed as a matter of principle to the use of alcoholic beverages by students.
2. The possessing, drinking or being under the influence of alcoholic beverages is strictly forbidden in the Montreat area. (This area is defined as the territory within a fifty mile radius of Montreat.)

Any student found guilty of possessing or firing them will be disciplined by the Honor Court in the following manner:

1. The student will be campused for a period of two weeks, or do such work as may be assigned.
2. The parents or guardian of the student may be notified by the Dean of Students that this action has been taken and that any reoccurrence of this offence will make the student liable to suspension or dismissal.

NEW ORGANIZATIONS

The College does not approve of secret organizations, social fraternities or sororities of any kind or of special groups whose membership is limited other than by interest.

New organizations (i.e., ones not included in the list in Clubs and Organizations) may be authorized only by the Administrative Committee, to whom a written statement of purpose and procedure must be presented. The Administrative Committee will appoint a sponsor after consultation with the students involved, if the organization is approved.

1. No swimming is allowed in Lake Susan at any time unless a qualified life guard appointed by the Director of Physical Education is on duty. Throwing or pushing anyone into Lake Susan is strictly prohibited.
2. Sunbathing for women is permitted only on the lakeside beach, the middle dock, Howerton Hall balcony and behind College Hall.
3. Sunbathing for women is not permitted on Sunday except on the portion of Howerton balcony which is not visible to the public.

RELATIONS BETWEEN THE SEXES

It is recognized that sex is one of the most powerful creative aspects of the human nature God has given us. Believing that understanding sex and learning to discipline oneself so as to control rather than be controlled by this basic drive is a fundamental element in development into mature manhood or womanhood, the college has a deep concern for students' attitudes and behavior in this regard. The college's purpose in expressing this concern is to use its influence to help students develop the self-discipline and self-control which characterize responsible full manhood and womanhood. Recognition of the value and worth of others as well as oneself, as persons made in the image of God, requires a basic respect for persons which refuses to exploit human nature, including sex, for the fleeting satisfactions of the moment. The sexual relationship, within marriage only, may be the means through which the deepest human relationship is experienced.

Although it is recognized that public display of affection can at times be genuine and meaningful, excessive display of affection can be offensive. Out of a concern for the reputation of the college, and a concern for the total public atmosphere and spirit in which we live, the college requires the students' cooperation in avoiding those forms of public and private expression of affection which can legitimately be regarded as being excessive or in bad taste.

It is obvious that the line between excessive and acceptable, between good and bad taste in this regard is not always easy to define. Nonetheless, some guidance is needed in the area of relations between the sexes. Our attitudes about this critical area of life can have tremendously important negative or positive implications for our development as persons. Therefore the Student Government Association, in cooperation with the Dean of Students, is expected to establish guidelines and to recommend procedures to implement this regulation.

MARRIAGE

Students who marry during the college year without notifying the Administration will be subject to dismissal.

CARS

1. Entering freshmen are not permitted to have cars in their possession during the first semester except under unusual circumstances and with the approval of the Dean of Students. SUPERVISION OF PARTIES

All forms of unchaperoned parties are strictly prohibited. All chaperoned parties must be approved through the office of the Dean of Students.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT REGULATIONS

I. These regulations are based on the assumption that most students behavior in college is governed by the good judgment and common sense of the student. The following regulations are intended to provide the minimum regulations necessary for successful community life and to give each student maximum opportunity for successful adjustment to college life.

A. Extra curricular participation

1. Eligibility for holding major offices (See SGA Constitution, Article VIII, Section 4A, B and C)

F. Meetings

1. Before a class meeting can be held and any action taken, a quorum of the class must be present.

 - c. Class Meetings (3 demerits for each absence)

6. Recording of Disciplinary Action

- a. The first Monday of each month, the Secretary-Treasurer in the respective dormitories is to report the assigned campuses, restrictions and demerits to the President of the Honor Court who in turn is to report these to the Honor Court. GENERAL INFORMATION

ASHEVILLE COMMUNITY CONCERTS and ASHEVILLE COMMUNITY THEATRE

Students may purchase season tickets at the beginning of the school year for one or both of these series. The Concert series bring five well-known artists or groups to Asheville during the year--orchestras, pianists, dance groups, etc. The Theatre presents the same number of plays, using local talent; it is considered an excellent amateur theatrical group.

Announcements are made by means of notices on bulletin boards. Faculty members also use such notices to get in touch with students. Students should form the habit of checking the main bulletin board in Gaither Hall twice daily and the boards in dormitories regularly.

CAMPUS BOUNDARIES

Because of the extensive area covered by Montreat, campus boundaries have been set for a woman student walking alone.

Daylight boundaries include the residential area of Montreat within the gate.

Night-time boundaries are much more restricted, because many areas of Montreat are poorly lighted. See the map on SGA (Gaither Hall) and dormitory bulletin boards for these limits.

DECORATING DORMITORY ROOMS

No nails should be used in the walls of dormitory rooms. Pictures or bulletin boards may be hung by means of adhesive-type picture hangers.

HIKING

A hike is defined as any walk beyond the boundaries set in Campus Boundari

Two or more persons may constitute a group for an unsponsored hike in the daytime.

Hikers must sign out, being specific about destination.

Any night hike must be arranged by special permission with the Director of Student Activities.

INFIRMARY

Students should report to the infirmary when ill, for absence from class for illness is excused only when certified by the school nurse. There is always someone on duty to welcome a sick student to the infirmary!

In order to keep Insurance and Medical Records straight, appointments with doctors, (excluding routine dentistry, eye examinations, and routine physical examinations, which are not covered by Insurance) should be made ahead of time through the Infirmary, except when urgency of the situation prevents taking time to do so.

Fees:

Students' medical insurance covers fees for the use of the infirmary and for routine medicines. There is a small fee for drugs and shots.

Clinic hours:

Certain hours each day are set and posted at the beginning of the school year. The school nurse is on call at all times and will contact a physician on need.

Visiting hours:

These hours are set and posted on campus bulleting boards at the beginning of the school year.
